

SELECTION POLICY

The following policy will be adopted for selection of Boxers for IBA Elite Women's World Boxing Championship, Asian Games and Commonwealth Games of 2022:

1. National Campers will be eligible for participating in Selection Trials. National Campers include the top 4 boxers of the last National Championship and the participants of the 2020 Tokyo Olympic who did not participate in the National Championship.
2. The eligible Boxers, mentioned above, will be allowed to participate only after the medical examination and certificate to the effect that they are fit to box, duly signed by the Team Doctor, Head Coach and the Boxer.
3. In general changes in weight category will be allowed once in a year at the time of National Championships.
4. However, in view of Asian Games and Commonwealth Games to be held this year in which the weight categories of IBA do not exactly tally with the weight categories of these two games, change in weight categories will be allowed for the boxers in the camp only for these games to the extent that the Boxers can manage within the specified weight category.
5. Selection Trials will be held in the Elite Women's camp in the middle of March, 2022 to select boxers for IBA Elite Women's Boxing Championship to be held at Istanbul, Turkey in May, 2022. Simultaneously, Selection Trials for Elite Women will also be made for selecting Boxers for Asian Games.
6. For Commonwealth Games, Selection Trials will be held in Elite Women camp in middle of June, 2022.
7. Selection Trials will be held in Elite Men camp for Asian Games and Commonwealth Games in the middle of May, 2022.
8. Selection Committee will comprise of President, BFI (or his nominee) and expert panel of reputed veteran boxers, preferably Arjuna/Dronacharya Awardees, past Olympians and past World Championship medalists.
9. All bouts during the Selection Trials will be video graphed.
10. This policy will be informed to all National Campers and will also be uploaded to BFI website.
