

Addendum to the selection criteria for Asian Games as when approved by the Selection Committee in a meeting held on 26th May 2023.

To be eligible to participate in trials:

- The athlete who medal (Gold/Silver) at the World Championship 2023 will have an
- automatic selection for the Asian games 2023 (first Olympic qualifier) in that particular weight category.
- Trials will be held for all Olympic weight categories for athletes other than those who
- participated in Olympic weight at World Championship 2023.
- An athlete at this stage will be allowed to move his/her weight up/down if they so wish, to participate.
- An athlete to be eligible for trials must be a camper of National Coaching Camp/Participated in the Tokyo Olympics Games 2020 or have Medaled at any one of the following Championships/Games:
 - Elite National Championships 2021/22.
 - Elite Asian Championship 2021/22.
 - Commonwealth Games 2022.
 - Elite World Championship 2021/22.
- Trials would be conducted for Elite Women in first/second week of May 2023 and for Elite Men in First/Second week of June 2023.
- Both boxers, who play the final of the selection trials will be selected to join the National Coaching Camp along with the 3rd Boxer, who is an Elite World Championship 2023 participant.
- Ranking Evaluation will be conducted for all athletes other than World Gold/Silver from 19th June to 1st July 2023.
- Any such requirements will be published in writing with sufficient notice to athletes.